Abingdon Astronomical Society (AAS) collects members' personal data for the administration of memberships and for communicating with members concerning their memberships and AAS events. The personal data of members and prospective members are collected and protected in compliance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the Data Protection Act 2018. The legal basis under which AAS collects these data is that they are necessary for the purposes of its legitimate interests as a membership organisation. AAS does not share your data with any other organisations. Please refer to the AAS Privacy Policy for further details, including about how you can check the information held about you and how you can remove, limit or correct the data. The AAS Privacy Policy is shown on the AAS website. Paper copies can be requested from the AAS Secretary.
